

List of Periodical Titles Available at The Peace and Justice Center.

(last updated, Jan. 13th, 2011)

Crisis (The premier crusading voice for civil rights.) <http://www.thecrisismagazine.com/>
At least two issues available at the Center.

Cultural Survival (The most trusted and comprehensive source of information on indigenous issues in the world.) <http://www.culturalsurvival.org/publications/cultural-survival-quarterly> At least three issues available at the Center.

Dollars and Sense (Provides analysis and opinion on economic policy and politics from a progressive political perspective.) <http://www.dollarsandsense.org/>
At least eleven issues available at the Center.

E the Environmental Magazine (A bi-monthly “clearinghouse” of information, news and resources for people concerned about the environment who want to know “What can I do?” to make a difference) <http://www.emagazine.com/>
At least twelve issues available at the Center.

Green American (The only nationwide directory of screened, socially and environmentally responsible businesses coast to coast.) <http://www.greenamerica.org/pubs/greenamerican/>
At least two issues available at the Center.

Real America (An in-depth look at the crucial social and environmental issues of our times. From global warming to unfair trade systems, from biotechnology to deforestation.) <http://www.greenamerica.org/pubs/realgreen/> At least two issues available at the Center.

Hightower Lowdown (Jim Hightower’s monthly newsletter speaking on behalf of working families, consumers, the environment, small businesses, and just plain folks.) <http://www.hightowerlowdown.org/> At least twenty issues available at the Center.

In These Times (Features award-winning investigative reporting about corporate malfeasance and government wrongdoing.) <http://www.inthesetimes.com/>
At least twenty-three issues available at the Center.

Labor Notes (A media and organizing project that has been the voice of union activists who want to put the movement back in the labor movement.) <http://labornotes.org/>
At least eighteen issues available at the Center.

Middle East Report (Published to help provide the American public with balanced and accurate information concerning U.S. relations with Middle Eastern states.) <http://www.merip.org/mer/mer205/alex.htm> At least nine issues available at the Center.

Mother Jones (A bimonthly magazine of investigative journalism that exposes the evils of the corporate world, the government, and the mainstream media.) <http://motherjones.com/> At least seven issues available at the Center.

NACLA Report on the Americas (The oldest and most widely read progressive magazine covering Latin America and its relationship with the United States.) <https://nacla.org/naclareport> Issues available at the PICA office - 61 Main St. Coe Bldg. Suite 15

Nation (The oldest continuously published weekly magazine in the United States. The periodical, devoted to politics and culture, is self-described as "the flagship of the left.") <http://www.thenation.com/> At least forty issues available at the Center.

New Internationalist (The world's leading independent publisher of magazines and books on global social justice and sustainable development.) <http://www.newint.org/> At least nineteen issues available at the Center.

Progressive (A monthly leftwing magazine of investigative reporting, political commentary, cultural coverage, activism, interviews, poetry, and humor.) <http://www.progressive.org/> At least twenty issues available at the Center.

Teaching Tolerance (Focuses on enlightening the public to the tough problems faced by America's rural schools and showcases innovative tolerance initiatives in schools across the country.) <http://www.tolerance.org/> At least six issues available at the Center.

Washington Spectator (A feisty bi-weekly bulletin that gives independent-minded readers behind-the-scenes insight into significant news ignored by the corporate media.) <http://www.washingtonspectator.org/index.cfm> At least twenty-five issues available at the Center.

Yes! (Concerned with building a more just, sustainable, and compassionate future with articles about economic alternatives and peace options.) <http://www.yesmagazine.org/> At least seven issues available at the Center.